Conditions:

The competition is only for Great Southern residents living with disability. No age restrictions apply.

Prints only to be submitted in postcard size (6” x 4”). No backing or frames permitted.

The main subject of the photograph should contain the entrant as the primary element. They can be engaged in their favourite activity, hobby, sport, pastime, with their pet/s, acting, singing or engaging in any activity they enjoy.

The judges have the final discretion to decline accepting any image they feel does not fit the criteria or is unsuitable for display.

Prints will be on display at the Abilities Festival at the Town Square on Tuesday the 3rd of December.

Prizes will be awarded at the event.

Attach your photo to the back of the entry form with magic tape or securely with a paper clip.

Photos and entry form can be dropped off at the Vancouver Arts Centre or the ACTIV office, 11 Minna St during office hours.
